

CPSD CHATTER

February 2010

Jackie Daemion

Both of the CPSD-sponsored classes are going well.

The Tuesday CPSD Class is playing to a full house each week with as many Angels as new dancers. Roger Smith is at the helm and we usually have at least four squares with several reserve Angels. The new dancers are getting the feel of the square dance community by attending some of the extra-curricular activities of the local clubs.

The Saturday morning Early Birds Squares class started on January 16 with, hopefully, good results. As of this writing, there are already four new dancers on board. This class is an exciting experiment because, as I said last month, the callers, John Caywood, Tork Clark, Diana Hilliard and Gary Evans, are all newer callers who are learning to teach as the dancers learn.

Both of these classes are being held at the Camden Community Center in San Jose. The Tuesday class is free to Angels who belong to a club and the Saturday class is free to everyone, new dancers and Angels alike.

By the time you read this, we hope that you will be getting ready to attend our New Dancer Hoedown on Saturday, February 6 at John Muir Middle School. Jim Osborne and Keith Ferguson will be on stage.
