

THE COMMITTEE TO PROMOTE SQUARE DANCING

THE 2010 JOE CARBONI MEMORIAL CALLER SCHOLARSHIP PURPOSE and APPLICATION

The Committee to Promote Square Dancing (CPSD) established this scholarship in 2009.

PURPOSE

The award is intended to attract and develop callers who will support Plus level square dancing in the community where the caller lives.

THE SCHOLARSHIP

The scholarship awards will be $150.00 toward the tuition for the Norcal Caller School, taught by Ken Ritucci and held August 19 – 23, 2010 in Sunnyvale, CA. Information about the school can be found at <http://www.kenritucci.com/callersschools/norcal-caller-school/>

APPLICATION

Please give your written application to one of the CPSD Board Members listed at www.c-p-s-d.org, email it to karl.jackie@gmail.com, or mail it to

Jackie Daemion
5544 Drysdale Drive, San Jose, CA 95124
408-723-0315-homr / 408-205-0681 - cell

Applications must be received by May 1, 2010.

The Board will hold an audition on Tuesday, May 25, 2010 at the Camden Community Center, Room 118, 3369 Union Avenue, San Jose, CA 95124. The audition will begin at 7:00 PM.

DECLARATION

The candidate must have belonged to a Plus level club for the last consecutive 12 months.

The candidate must agree to prepare him or herself to be a Plus level caller as described above under PURPOSE.

The candidate should have a caller mentor and be willing to listen to and follow the advice of that caller as well as the advice received at the caller school.

SINGING & TIMING ABILITY

The candidate should be able to sing on key, with clear articulation, and with appealing stage presence, as judged by the Board of CPSD.

AUDITION

At the audition, the candidate will be required to perform one well-practiced choreographed singing call to a group of at least one square of dancers in order to demonstrate ability to adequately call to a live audience. The candidate may use notes.

AWARD

The scholarship will be awarded based on the discretion of the Board of CPSD who will consider ability, enthusiasm and need.
